Sir,

Sub: Compassionate Gratuity -Application from Sri Krishnayya, father of late Sri K.Rangaswami-Farm Foreman, Central Silk Farm, Kollegal-Forwarded.

---x---

I forward herewith an application dated 4-8-1953 from Sri Krishnayya, father of late Sri K.Rangaswami, Farm Foreman, Central Silk Farm, Kollegal for the grant of a Compassionate gratuity.

Sri K.Rangaswami was first appointed on 19-4-1943 as an operative in the Sericulture Section under the Sericultural Expert on a pay of Rs.23/- per month. He served in the department in several capacities such as Operative, Moth-Tester, Sericulture Demonstrator, Rearer, Junior Market Officer and last he held the post of Farm Foreman, Central Silk Farm,Kollegal in the scale of Rs.45-3-75 drawing a pay of Rs.45/- plus Dearness Allowance of Rs.22/- per month. He was granted earned leave for 90 days from 23-12-52 to 22-3-53 and in continuation leave on Medical Certificate for 28 days upto 19-4-53 due to ill health and he expired on 3-8-1953. He had put in a total service of 10 years, 3 months and 15 days The Sericultural Expert,Kollegal has reported that his character, conduct and work during the period of service have been satisfactory.

From the report of Revenue authorities enclosed,it will be seen that the deceased has left behind him his aged father, his widow and two minor children (one daughter aged 8 years and one son aged 2½ years). The widow of the deceased is reported to be of unsound mind and hence Sri Krishnayya the father of the deceased who is the guardian of the minor children and the widow is the rightful heir to receive the gratuity.

As the family of the deceased has been left in a destitute condition, the Sericultural Expert, Kollegal has proposed the grant of the maximum amount of gratuity admissible under the rules which works out to Rs.804 (i.e. 45 plus 22 x 12).

In the circumstances, I recommend that a compassionate gratuity of Rs.800/- may kindlybe snactioned to the applicant Sri Krishnayya father of the late K.Rangaswamy, Farm Foreman, Central Silk Farm,Kollegal payable at Kollegal Sub-Treasury.

The delay in submission of the application is mainly due to the delay in furnishing the discriptive roll of the applican

2. I enquired the petitioner Sri Krishnayya, the deceased's father, on 9.9.53. He states that his son has got a daughter aged 8 years Saroja by name and a son aged 2½ years Venugopal. The wife of the deceased Dharmamma is not alright and it is not safe to recommend her to receive the husband's arrears of pay etc. of the deceased. I have satisfied myself the position of the sole family by enquiring from neighbours. The Village Officers also corroborate the statement of the petitioner and the deceased with

Hence the petitioner is the right person
